Jaipur: Riding on the success wave of selling residential properties across the city, the Rajasthan Housing Board is now evening the commercial landscape where it has met with success recently in its auction of commercial properties at Burwa, generating a revenue of more than Rs 300 crore so far.

However, on Tuesday, RHB Commissioner Pawan Arora informed that the board will sell commercial properties worth about Rs 200 crore through e-auction in the upcoming month of July. It is noteworthy that a total of 78 properties situated in various cities and especially in Pratap Nagar and Mansarover Vagras of Jaipur will be auctioned by the board that includes 55 commercial and 23 residential properties.

He informed that the auction will be conducted from July 12 to 15 for 11 plots in upcoming Agar Road, namely Ashok Garden, and the minimum bid price of these plots has been kept between Rs 65,500 to Rs 98,800 per square meter. One of these plots has been reserved for pathology lab. Moreover, the e-auction of 12 showroom size plots in RHB’s Art Market developed under the prestigious Mansarover Vagras of the Board will be held from July 22 to 24. The minimum bid price of these plots has been kept between Rs 65,500 to Rs 98,800 per square meter. One of these plots has been reserved for pathology lab.

The employees and personnel in RHB met Commissioner Pawan Arora on Tuesday to thank him for providing necessary advice and back-up for over 20 years. Prior to a successful auction of Pratap Nagar and Mansarover Vagras of the Board was held from July 22 to 24. The minimum bid price of these plots has been kept between Rs 65,500 to Rs 98,800 per square meter. One of these plots has been reserved for pathology lab.

Two residential plots of high-income group schemes in Pratap Nagar and Mansarover Vagras of the Board will be sold through e-auction. Additionally, the auction of residential plots at Pratap Nagar, Mansarover Vagras of the Board will be held from July 24 to 26. A discount of 2 percent on the auction price will be given on submission of the entire auction amount within 15 days of the issuance of demand letter. Arora said.
