Bikaner is a city in the northwest of the state of Rajasthan, India. It is located 330 kilometres (205 miles) northwest of the state capital, Jaipur. Bikaner city is the administrative headquarters of Bikaner District and Bikaner division. Formerly the capital of the princely state of Bikaner, the city was founded by Rao Bika in 1488 CE and from its small origins it has developed into the fourth largest city in Rajasthan. The Ganges Canal, completed in 1928, and the Indira Gandhi Canal, completed in 1987, facilitated its development. The city celebrates its foundation day on Akshaya Tritiya by flying kites and eating special Rajasthani food that includes Bajre Ka Khichda and Imli ka Paani (Tamarind Water) among other snacks. The celebration lasts for two days, known as Chhoti Akha Teej and Badi Akha Teej. People can be seen flying kites during these two days right from the early morning at 5-6 am till late sunset. Around the Pond Department has developed seating arrangements for the visitors to watch the multimedia performance.

Therefore, The UIT, Bikaner has proposed to develop the pond with multimedia display on liquid screen experience for the public and to the visitors.
